

Supply Efficiency Scoring (SES)

...a healthcare invention designed to slow the growth of healthcare spending by utilizing a patent-pending system to balance the supply of clinical diagnostic services with appropriate demand.

"Tapping the brakes" to slow the growth of healthcare spending SM

Michael Samms – A 30 plus year healthcare veteran is CEO of Enable Quality Health, LLC. Mr. Samms was formerly CEO of a 2,400 physician and 20 Hospital PHO (Physician-Hospital Organization) where he created self-insured health plans for large employers. He also created a 1,900 Physician CVO (Credentialing Verification Organization). He oversaw development of a credentialing form and with the help of then Kansas Insurance Commissioner, Kathleen Sebelius, this form was adopted by the states of Kansas and Missouri. Mr. Samms also created a PSO (Physician Services Organization) which served over 500 physicians.

Michael has been married to Christine for 24 years, together they have two children. Michael is active in his church and Boy Scouts of America.

Kent McAllister - A 20 plus year veteran of software and healthcare solutions. After graduating from the EDS Systems Engineering program, he managed a number of development projects as a pioneer in advanced technologies with IBM. Mr. McAllister focused on healthcare in the mid-1990's while at IBM and later at Cerner. In the provider community, he has served as an EVP and CIO for one of the country's largest reference labs. He has served as the CIO for the Midwest region's largest non-profit health system, and as an EVP for Nueterra Holdings. While at Nueterra, he created an IT company, Mavicor, LLC (www.mavicor.com), dedicated to addressing the technology needs of Ambulatory Surgical Center clients.

He has been married to Cheryl for 28 years and they have three grown children. His personal interests include serving on the boards of non-profit organizations, including the Christian Leadership Foundation and Treasure in Heaven, Inc.

Tom Johnson – A 35 year marketing veteran with a wide range of business development acumen within consumer products. Previously he was Vice President, Retail Markets for Acme United Corporation. During his tenure with Acme United, the firm was recognized by Fortune, Forbes and Business Week as "One of the Top 100 Fastest Growing Public Companies" for four straight years. His depth of experience with national and international relationships provided significant value to Chinese and Western Hemisphere Top 100 international retailers. Prior to Acme United, Tom served with American Greetings for 17 years in a variety of management roles. Tom also is the lead partner with a private consulting and advisory firm, Alden Collections, LLC.

Tom supports a wide variety of social efforts, including the Jane Goodall Foundation and is active in Scouting on an international basis. In this role, he maintains a keen focus within developing countries for sustainable youth social development. Tom is married, has two children, and resides in Overland Park, Kansas.